

MARYMOUNT UNIVERSITY

Save the date!

Family Weekend, October 22-24, 2010

Here's a sampling of the exciting events we're planning for you:

Friday, October 22

5:30 p.m. Parents Reception (wine and cheese) and Faculty Art Exhibit

Barry Gallery, Reinsch Library
parents only

8 p.m. Performance by Magician and Illusionist Wayne Hoffman

Reinsch Library Auditorium
appropriate for all ages

Saturday, October 23

10:30 a.m. Ribbon-Cutting Ceremony and Grand Opening of the 26th Street Complex

Open House at Marymount's new Caruthers and Lee Ostapenko Halls.

Noon Street Fair in the Malek Family Plaza

Food, drinks, jugglers, face-painting, music, caricature artists, and more!

open-air plaza between Caruthers and Lee Ostapenko halls

Afternoon Men's Soccer and Women's Volleyball

times and places TBA

7:30 p.m. Two options in Washington, DC

1 The Capitol Steps perform at the Ronald Reagan Building

A Washington, DC, tradition since 1981, the famed satire group of Congressional staffers-turned-songwriters lampoons every political party.

appropriate for ages 16 and older

2 The International Spy Museum, a private event

The museum will be open exclusively for the Marymount community. A reception will follow at Zola's, an elegant restaurant next to the museum.

appropriate for all ages

Sunday, October 24

11 a.m. Mass of Thanksgiving

Lee Center

Noon Marymount's 60th Anniversary Brunch

The celebration will include a delicious meal and a visual presentation of Marymount's six decades.

Gerard Dining Hall

MARYMOUNT
UNIVERSITY

GREAT EDUCATION • CAPITAL LOCATION

www.marymount.edu