Marymount University
Arlington, Virginia
Applying to Marymount University

Admission Criteria/Requirements
We invite you to apply to Marymount University. Admission to Marymount is competitive and is based on high school grades, SAT or ACT scores, and a letter of recommendation.

To be considered for admission to Marymount University, please submit the following:

1. the enclosed application with a $40 nonrefundable application fee
2. a letter of recommendation from a high school counselor or dean of students (or for those students who are no longer in school, an employer). This may come to us on the recommendation form included in this packet or on a form approved by your school.
3. an official high school transcript that shows a minimum of 15 credits in preparatory courses (see “high school courses” below)

   International students attending schools outside the United States: Please secure a certified-original transcript, translated into English, sent directly to the Office of Admissions. Information regarding student visas and immigration procedures will be sent upon admission to the university.
4. official SAT or ACT scores
   (Marymount’s school code for the SAT is 5405 and for the ACT is 4378.)
   Students for whom English is not a primary language must submit a TOEFL, IELTS, or Pearson Test of English (PTE) score. Minimum scores are as follows: TOEFL – 550 paper-based test, 79 Internet-based test; IELTS – 6.0; PTE – 54.
5. an essay or untimed writing sample of at least 250 but no more than 500 words.

Residence Requirement
All Marymount students who are 23 years of age or younger are eligible to live on campus. Eligible students whose families do not live within commuting distance of the university are required to live on campus during their first two years of enrollment. Please note that campus housing is limited. Students who submit a deposit after May 1 may be placed on a waiting list for enrollment and/or university housing.

Notification/Deadlines
Marymount University has a rolling admissions policy. The recommended submission deadline is April 1. (International students, please see deadlines at www.marymount.edu/admissions/international.) Applications will be reviewed when all credentials have arrived. You will be notified of the decision within three to four weeks. Marymount does adhere to the national priority deposit deadline of May 1. A $300 nonrefundable deposit for resident students, or a $100 nonrefundable deposit for commuting students, is required to reserve a place and confirm your intention to enroll.

Getting to Know Marymount University
We welcome the opportunity to meet or speak with you at your convenience. One of the best ways to get acquainted with Marymount is to make an appointment to visit us, take a campus tour, and meet with an admissions counselor. A Marymount representative may also be coming to your area. To schedule a tour or find out about locations Marymount representatives will visit, please contact us:
