Marymount Celebrates Mass and the Blessing of the Sacred Heart of Mary Chapel

Twenty-two custom-designed stained-glass windows were the inspiration for the first renovation to the Sacred Heart of Mary Chapel in its 62-year history at the heart of the Marymount University campus.

Sunday morning, March 22, the Most Rev. Paul S. Loverde of the Catholic Diocese of Arlington celebrated Mass after blessing the chapel and the artist-commissioned windows, as well as all who would enter through the doors. Read more...

Real Estate Advantage Program

Real Estate Advantage is Marymount University’s benefit program for its alumni and friends who are buying or selling their home. The program provides combined savings on the purchase, sale, or refinancing of a property, depending on the property’s value. Savings include:

- Percentage credit from realtor commission
- Percentage savings on title services
- Moving services discounts
- Mortgage discounts
- Insurance discounts
The Advantage Program is a free, no-obligation program offered in all 50 states. Details of the program can be found by emailing Erin Mendenhall or calling 703.919.4003.

Give MU a 5
Our student callers are hard at work as calling is now underway for our Spring Phoneathon. When you receive the call, will you Give MU A Five? Whether it's $5, $25, $55, $105, $255, $550, $1,005 - or any number with a five in it - your support and participation counts. After all, 85 percent of entering freshman students receive some type of financial aid during their time at MU. Already we have received 450 pledges and gifts from alumni and parents during our Fall Phoneathon efforts. To join your fellow alumni in "Giving MU A Five", please click here. Thanks in advance for your support!

Jane Goodall to Speak at Marymount Benefit
Marymount University will host Dr. Jane Goodall at DAR Constitution Hall on Friday, April 17, at 7 p.m. Dr. Goodall is a famed primatologist, conservationist, founder of the Jane Goodall Institute (janegoodall.org) and UN Messenger of Peace. Proceeds from the event will help establish a fund at Marymount that will enhance the work of volunteerism and community engagement through campus grants and capacity building. Tickets are on sale through Ticketmaster. Read more…

Portfolio in Motion 2015
Underground
Marymount's annual student-run fashion

Liberty Mutual Policy Discounts
Liberty Mutual has partnered with Marymount University to offer alumni show. Portfolio in Motion, will take place April 30 - May 2, 2015. Premiere night, April 30, will feature the presentation of the Designer of the Year Award to Sue Wong, with a special cocktail reception preceding the show. The annual Alumni Wine & Cheese Reception is Saturday, May 2, prior to the final performance. Tickets go on sale soon; sponsorships are also available. Learn more on the PIM website.

UN Representative Speaks at MU Founders Day Celebrations
Sister Veronica Brand told an audience at Marymount University’s annual Founders Day celebration on Feb. 25 that in her role as a Non-Governmental Organization Representative to the United Nations, she speaks for those who may not otherwise be heard.

“Our presence at the U.N. is trying to be a voice for the voiceless, trying to bring the voice from the grassroots to the deliberations,” she said.

As the Religious of the Sacred Heart of Mary’s (RSHM) NGO representative, Brand works in collaboration with those from other faiths on issues such as fighting to end human trafficking, promoting human rights for migrants and empowering women. Read more...

Athletics Hall of Fame Class of 2015
Marymount University is proud to announce its tenth Athletics Hall of Fame class, to be inducted on Saturday, May 9, 2015. Five former Saints standouts – including women’s volleyball’s Mary Carroll Lawhorne, women’s basketball’s Crissie Washington, men’s swimming’s Greg Murtha, women’s soccer’s Claire Special Olympics Basketball Tournament - Volunteer to Cheer!

This Saturday, March 28, is Marymount’s 20th anniversary of hosting Special Olympics. This year we have a huge focus on celebrating one of MU’s finest service traditions. The day is going to be JAM PACKED with saint spirit. You can still volunteer by bringing your family and friends to help cheer on a team! We will Gebauer, and dual-sport athlete Jenny Baize – will be enshrined. Read more...

designate a specific alumni-sponsored team and you will get their school colors ahead of time. You don’t have to be there for the whole day, but as much of it as you can. Please register online to help make the day a success!

Marymount 5k - Run, Sponsor, or be a Vendor to Benefit Kids in Costa Rica
Marymount University’s Doctor of Physical Therapy (DPT) program, in conjunction with title sponsor ACE Physical Therapy, is pleased to present their inaugural 5K Race. The purpose of the event is to raise much needed funds to support the program’s annual service learning trip to Costa Rica, where students travel to orphanages to provide rehabilitative services to the underprivileged. The funds raised help defray the cost of purchasing and shipping medical equipment and supplies.

Post-race festivities will be held on campus in Saint City and feature premium draft beers, a mimosa bar, music, local vendors, and family-friendly games and events, including face painting for the kids. Sponsorships, vendor spaces, and race bibs are all available. Visit the race website for more information.

Remembrance Day
Saturday, April 18, from 10:30 a.m. - 12:30 p.m., Marymount will have its annual Remembrance Day service project honoring all of the MU Saints we have lost over the years. You and your family are welcome to join us for this event! Please register here and help us package meals to send to one of the poorest countries in the world. This event will begin after the Marymount 5k. If you are registered for the race, you can also participate in the service project. Questions? Email Meg at mdalmut@marymount.edu.

A GOLD Affair
May 14
A GOLD Affair is a semi-formal reception at Clarendon Ballroom to welcome the Class of 2015 into the Alumni Association. All young alumni (Graduates Of The Last Decade) are invited to attend as we welcome our newest alumni. Dress for the occasion and help the Class of 2015 kick off their graduation festivities! Tickets go on sale March 30. Check out photos from last year!
Update your new contact information with us:
Email alumni@marymount.edu or click here to sign up for MUAlumniNET and update your profile.