

Marymount University Teacher Education Candidates’ Performance on National Content Knowledge and State Licensure Exams

In the Commonwealth of Virginia, Elementary Education teacher candidates are required to pass Praxis II, Reading for Virginia Educators (RVE), and Virginia Communication and Language Assessment (VCLA). Special Education teacher candidates are required to pass Reading for Virginia Educators (RVE) and Virginia Communication and Language Assessment. Secondary teacher candidates are required to pass Praxis II and Virginia Communication and Language Assessment (VCLA). English as Second Language (ESL) teacher candidates are required to pass the VCLA.

The Marymount University Education Department requires that all teacher candidates pass all required licensure exams prior to student teaching. Therefore, the licensure pass rate for all Marymount University teacher education candidates is 100%.