Under U.S. government regulations, all international students who will be attending a U.S. institution under F-1 visa status must demonstrate the ability to meet all expenses associated with their first academic year of study. This Declaration of Finances must be submitted to the Office of Admissions along with supporting financial documentation in the form of original bank statements signed and stamped by a bank official. Sponsoring agencies, governments, or companies must provide a letter that includes the student's name, amount of U.S. dollars to be provided each year, and the period of the award. This letter must be printed on official letterhead and include an official signature and stamp of the sponsoring institution. If financial documents are not in English, please provide certified translations. All financial documents must be dated within six months of the I-20 issuance.

F-1 visa students are required to study full time during the fall and spring semesters, but are not required to attend the summer term (unless the initial term of enrollment is in the summer or if their course of study requires it). Summer enrollment is an additional cost. For the 2017-18 academic year, the estimated cost of attendance including living expenses, tuition, and fees for full-time enrollment is:

Undergraduate students: $54,509 U.S. dollars

Graduate students: $42,495 U.S. dollars

Graduate Business students: $42,675 U.S. dollars

Doctor of Physical Therapy students: $63,200 U.S. dollars

The additional financial support that must be demonstrated for each dependent of the student is $7,000 for the spouse and $4,500 for each child, per academic year. Please visit www.marymount.edu/studentacts or detailed information about the cost of attendance.
