

International Student Transfer Clearance Form

Marymount University
Arlington, Virginia
www.marymount.edu

This form is for F-1 students currently studying in the United States who have been admitted into a degree-seeking academic program at Marymount University and have decided that they will attend MU.

Student: Please discuss the SEVIS transfer process and your current immigration status with your current international student office. When you are ready to transfer your SEVIS record to MU, complete Section A and submit this form, along with a copy of your MU acceptance letter, to the international student office at your current school. A Designated School Official (DSO) at your current school should complete Section B. Please return the completed form to the appropriate MU Office of Admissions (contact information below). A list of all other required documentation can be found at www.marymount.edu/admissions/international. Your I-20 from MU will not be issued until all requirements are received.
