Code of conduct for Education Loans

Because Marymount participates in FSA loan programs, the following is our published and enforced code of conduct that includes bans on:

- revenue-sharing arrangements with any lender,
- steering borrowers to particular lenders or delaying loan certifications, and
- offers of funds for private loans to students in exchange for providing concessions or promises to the lender for a specific number of FSA loans, a specified loan volume, or a preferred lender arrangement.

The code of conduct applies to the officers, employees, and agents of the school and also prohibits employees of the financial aid office from receiving gifts from a lender, guaranty agency, or loan servicer.

The code also prohibits financial aid office staff (or other employees or agents with responsibilities with respect to education loans) from accepting compensation for:

- any type of consulting arrangement or contract to provide services to or on behalf of a lender relating to education loans; and
- service on an advisory board, commission, or group established by lenders or guarantors, except for reimbursement for reasonable expenses.
